

December 6, 2013

Aloha kākou,

Kapi`olani Community College will be the venue for the 2014 World Indigenous Peoples' Conference on Education (WIPCE) from May 19-24, 2014. The WIPCE conference is held every three years in different countries ranging from 500 to 4000 attendees.

1987 - Zwemelchstn, Canada -	500
1990 - Turanga, New Zealand -	1,800
1993 - Wollongong, Australia -	2,000
1996 - Alburquerque, New Mexico -	1,200
1999 - Hilo, Hawaii at UHH -	2,000
2002 - Alberta, Canada -	1,000
2005 - Hamilton, New Zealand -	4,000
2008 - Melbourne, Australia -	2,500
2011 - Cusco, Peru -	800
2014 - Kapi`olani Community College

Because of the potential size of this conference, we will not be providing facilities or bookings for other meetings, courses, or conferences from May 19 - 24, 2014. I ask for the campus' kōkua in hosting this important conference.

Mahalo for your patience and understanding!